Dr. Ernest Edward Slaughter, Sr., was born on February 10, 1967 in Long Island, New York to Willie Davidson and Katie Smith. He moved to Jackson, MS in 1976. He lived in Memphis, TN for four years and Woodland, MS before moving back to Jackson, MS in 1987.

Dr. Slaughter accepted Christ as his personal savior at Pleasant Ridge Missionary Baptist Church in Sparta, MS under the leadership of Pastor Kevin Crum.

Dr. Slaughter confessed his call into the Gospel Ministry in December of 1991 at the Johnson Chapel Baptist Church in Jackson, Mississippi. He preached his first sermon in January 1992. Dr. Slaughter was ordained August 23, 1992. He was moved by the Spirit of God to unite with the New Canney Creek Missionary Baptist Church on March 23, 1993, he then was elected Interim Pastor in May of 1993 after the passing of Rev. J.S. Sutton, Sr. He was finally elected as the Senior Pastor of New Canney Creek Missionary Baptist Church on July 30, 1993, where he is still serving as God’s spokesman even today.

Dr. Slaughter graduated from St. Thomas Christian College located in Jacksonville, FL in May of 2008, where he received his Doctorate of Divinity.

This man has been known as, “A man born ahead of his time. A walking Bible, and one of God’s brilliant minds in the ministry.” As the Queen has said concerning King Solomon,” The half has not been told.” The late Dr. Spann would often utter these words concerning Dr. Slaughter, “No one needs to go the Heaven before hearing This Slaughter!”
